

Lancaster ISD Beliefs

We believe...

-  All people have worth and are to be treated with respect.
-  Effort and perseverance are necessary to achieve full potential.
-  Everyone can learn, and learning is a continuous process.
-  Individuals are responsible for their choices and actions.
-  People are responsible for contributing to the success of our community.
-  Diversity strengthens and enriches our community.
-  Honesty and integrity are crucial in building trusting relationships.
-  Effective communication is a key component to building a cohesive educational community.
-  High expectations and motivation yield high performance.
-  Education is a shared responsibility of the family, community and school.
-  Willingness to change is necessary for continuous improvement.
-  Educational achievement enhances the quality of life.